

SEMINAR FOR COUNSELLORS

TOPIC

Counsellors, Court and Confidentiality

A SEMINAR NOT TO BE MISSED!

A relationship counsellor's survival guide to family law.

This first time seminar provides an insight into the challenges faced by relationship counsellors and considers questions like;

- What are YOU meant to know about Family Law?
- Do YOU have to tell people what the Family Law Act says?
- Can YOU be taken to Court?
- Can agreements be documented? If so, how?
- Are YOUR notes confidential?
- What is the difference between counselling and mediation? and is any of it confidential?
- What are YOUR obligations to notify?
- And much more

This is a presentation YOU don't want to miss. A unique opportunity to get a clear understanding of the real-life Family Law issues that you are likely to encounter and how best to navigate around the traps and pitfalls.

Presenter: Amy Campbell is an Accredited Family Law Specialist and Senior Associate at Michael Lynch Family Lawyers. Amy practises exclusively in Family and de facto relationship law and has extensive experience in all facets of family law, and adopts a practical approach to navigating the complex Family Law environment. Amy has a particular interest in children's matters and in finding innovative solutions which enable parents to maintain a positive co-parenting relationship into the future.

Venue: 6 – 7 pm | Tuesday 29 April 2014

Broncos Leagues Club, 98 Fulcher Road, Red Hill

Fee: $30

BOOK NOW as places are strictly limited!

Phone (07) 3221 4300 or email us at law@mlynch.com.au.

For more information from others that have attended our previous seminars visit:

www.mlfl.com.au

